

INDUS WATER TREATY PAUSED, ATTARI BORDER CLOSED, VISAS SUSPENDED; ALL-PARTY MEETING TODAY

India downgrades diplomatic ties with Pak

● Military, naval & air advisors to be withdrawn from High Commission

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, Apr 11 23

INDIA ON WEDNESDAY suspended the Indus Water Treaty and announced downgrading diplomatic ties with Pakistan including expulsion of its military attaches in view of cross-border links to the Pahalgam terror attack.

The Cabinet Committee on Security (CCS) met this evening under the chairmanship of Prime Minister Narendra Modi and decided to close the Integrated Check Post at Attari with immediate effect, foreign secretary Vikram Misri said at a late evening press briefing. It is learnt that the CCS lasted for around two-and-a-half hours.

Pakistani nationals will not be permitted to travel to India under the SAARC Visa Exemption Scheme and any such visas issued in the past to Pakistani nationals are deemed cancelled, Misri said. The CCS decided that the Indus Waters Treaty of 1960 will be held in abeyance with immediate effect, until Pakistan credibly and irrevocably abjures its support for cross-border terrorism, he said. On closing of the Integrated Check Post at Attari, Misri said those who have crossed over with valid endorsements may return through that route before May 1.

Misri said, "The defence, military, naval and air advisors in the Pakistani High Commission in New Delhi are declared Persona Non Grata." They have a week to leave India, he said.

India will be withdrawing its own defence, navy and air advisors from the Indian High Commission in Islamabad. "These posts in the respective High Commissions are deemed annulled. Five support staff of the Service Advisors will also be withdrawn from both High Commissions," he said. "The overall strength of the High Commissions will be brought down to 30 from the present 55 through further reductions, to be effected by May 1," he said.

The CCS was briefed in detail on the terrorist attack on Tuesday in Pahalgam that left 25 Indians and one Nepali citizen dead. "A number of others sustained injuries. The CCS condemned the attack in the strongest terms and expressed its deepest condolences to the families of the victims and hoped for the early recovery of the injured," Misri said.

"Strong expressions of support and solidarity have been received from many governments around the world, which have unequivocally condemned this terror attack," he said.

Probe indicates 7 terrorists, including 4 to 5 from Pak, behind deadly attack

A TOTAL OF seven terrorists, including four-five from Pakistan, are suspected to have opened fire on tourists at the Baisaran valley meadow in Pahalgam on Tuesday, The Indian Express has learnt.

According to sources, eyewitness accounts and intelligence reports suggest that at least two of the attackers are suspected to be local militants.

"The Urdu that they (the foreign terrorists) spoke is spoken in certain parts of Pakistan... At least two local militants are suspected to be accompanying them," an officer from the security establishment told IE.

Authorities have released sketches of at least three terrorists and announced a reward of ₹20 lakh each for any information about them.

Highly placed sources said one of the suspects is believed to have been involved in an attack on an IAF convoy, which claimed the life of a corporal rank person nel last year. "One of the suspects has been identified as a local overground worker who went to Pakistan in 2017. He came back last year," a source from a central agency said.

Another source said they are probing the involvement of a top Lashkar commander, Saifulah Kasuri alias Saifullah Khalid, who has been a part of several terror attacks for nearly two decades now. He is a close aide of 26/11 Mumbai attack mastermind Hafiz Saeed, sources said.

All attackers are believed to have fled to the higher reaches of the Pir Panjal range, and search operations are underway by the Army, the central paramilitary forces and the J&K police. The attackers are suspected to have had on body cameras - "a normal practice these days", an officer from the J&K police said.

"All attacks in Jammu in past 3 years have been shot through body or gun-mounted cameras. These videos are used for propaganda purposes. The LeT (Lashkar-e-Taiba) has come out with propaganda material using the footage," this officer said.

Flight tickets to Srinagar fall after Pahalgam attack

Mumbai, April 23

AIRFARES TO SRINAGAR marked a significant slump a day after a terror attack in Pahalgam, south Kashmir left 26 tourists dead on Tuesday. Tour operators saw a burst of requests for booking cancellations even as the government asked airlines to not charge fees against it.

Air India, IndiGo and SpiceJet added special flights to Srinagar from Mumbai and Delhi on Wednesday to help stranded tourists return home. Civil aviation minister K Rammoan Naidu convened an urgent meeting with airlines and advised against increasing fares on the Srinagar route.

"In view of the emergent situation, we have taken steps to keep the fares moderate. Our priority remains safety of our customers and offering efficient services," IndiGo, India's largest carrier said. The carrier deployed two additional flights to Srinagar over and above the regular schedule of 160 weekly flights. "Guests booked to travel on Air India Express flights from or to Srinagar until 30th April 2025 are being offered the flexibility to reschedule their travel with a complete waiver of date change fees and fare difference. Guests may also opt to cancel their bookings and receive a full refund to their original mode of payment," a statement from Air India Express said.

The Covid-19 recovery phase saw Kashmir receiving a record number of tourists annually. From 1.68 crore seen in 2018, more than 2.35 crore tourists visited Jammu and Kashmir in 2024. This pushed airfares to their highest levels with a return fare from Delhi to Srinagar at ₹20,000-24,000

HOPES DENTED

■ Air India, IndiGo and SpiceJet added special flights to Srinagar from Mumbai & Delhi on Wednesday to help stranded tourists return home

■ Tourism got a boost in Kashmir post-Covid: From 1.68 mn in 2018, over 23.5 mn tourists visited J&K in 2024

■ Following attacks, the cheapest return ticket from Delhi to Srinagar available for Thursday was priced at ₹11,200 becoming a norm. Tuesday's attack, however, brought down the fares significantly. The cheapest return ticket from Delhi to Srinagar available for Thursday was priced at ₹11,200. Mumbai to Srinagar one-way, non-stop flight was even cheaper than from Delhi at ₹4,775, for the same date.

"As per the early observations, flight cancellations jumped by 7x, and a drop in future bookings by 40%, said Manjari Singhal, Chief Growth and Business Officer, Cleartrip. "Several of our members have reported huge cancellations. We are not expecting new bookings to come for up to 10 days for June-July. This season, the bookings were very strong," Rajiv Mehra, president, Indian Association of Tour Operators said to EE.
